107TH CONGRESS 1ST SESSION

H. R. 3105

To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to allow amounts elected for reimbursement of medical care expenses under a health flexible spending arrangement, as defined in Code Section 106(c)(2) and the regulations promulgated under Section 125, that are unused during a Plan Year to be carried over within the account to subsequent plan years for the reimbursement of future eligible medical expenses.

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

OCTOBER 11, 2001

Mr. ROYCE introduced the following bill; which was referred to the Committee on Ways and Means

A BILL

To amend the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 to allow amounts elected for reimbursement of medical care expenses under a health flexible spending arrangement, as defined in Code Section 106(c)(2) and the regulations promulgated under Section 125, that are unused during a Plan Year to be carried over within the account to subsequent plan years for the reimbursement of future eligible medical expenses.

- 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
- 2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,

1	SECTION 1. CARRYOVER OF UNUSED BENEFITS FROM
2	HEALTH FLEXIBLE SPENDING ARRANGE-
3	MENTS.
4	(a) In General.—Section 125 of the Internal Rev-
5	enue Code of 1986 (relating to cafeteria plans) is amended
6	by redesignating subsections (h) and (i) as subsections (i)
7	and (j), respectively, and by inserting after subsection (g)
8	the following new subsection:
9	"(h) Allowance of Carryovers of Unused
10	Funds to Subsequent Taxable Years.—
11	"(1) In general.—For purposes of this title—
12	"(A) a plan or other arrangement shall not
13	fail to be treated as a cafeteria plan or health
14	flexible spending arrangement, and
15	"(B) no amount shall be required to be in-
16	cluded in gross income by reason of this section
17	or any other provision of this chapter,
18	solely because under such plan or other arrangement
19	any amounts elected for reimbursement of eligible
20	medical care expenses under a health flexible spend-
21	ing arrangement which are unused during a plan
22	year may be carried forward to one or more suc-
23	ceeding plan years.
24	"(2) Amounts included in gross income.—
25	Any carryover amount described in subsection (h)(1)
26	shall be included in gross income for purposes of

- Federal withholding and employment tax purposes, including FICA taxes. Any amount carried over under this subparagraph shall be treated as wages for the taxable year in which the amounts were determined to be carry over amounts as described in subsection (h)(1).
  - "(3) TREATMENT OF AND LIMITATION ON ROLLOVER AMOUNTS.—Amounts carried over under subparagraph (h)(1) shall be limited as follows:
    - "(A) Amounts carried forward pursuant to subsection (h)(1) shall be limited to $2,000 per plan year (as indexed for future years by the cost of living adjustment determined under section 1(f)(3)). Any unused amounts during any plan year in excess of this amount shall be forfeited and shall be treated in accordance with the applicable regulations issued under section 125.
    - "(B) Amounts carried forward pursuant to subsection (h)(1) shall be used only for reimbursement of Qualified Medical Care Expenses defined in subsection (h)(5) below.
    - "(C) The employer may invest such carryover amounts in guaranteed principle and interest investments which provide 100 percent liquidity within the account.

"(4) Forfeitures for terminating participants permitted.—Nothing in this subsection shall preclude the application of the requirement set forth in the regulations promulgated under section 125 that participants who terminate participation prior to the end of the plan year must forfeit any health flexible spending arrangement account balance provided such amounts do not consist of carry over amounts described in subsection (h)(1).

"(5) Qualified medical expenses.—

"(A) IN GENERAL.—The term 'qualified medical expenses' means, with respect to subsection (h)(3) above, amounts paid for medical care (as defined in section 213(d)) for such individual, the spouse of such individual, and any dependent (as defined in section 152) of such individual, but only to the extent such amounts are not compensated for by insurance or otherwise.

"(B) HEALTH INSURANCE EXPENSES.—

"(i) IN GENERAL.—Subparagraph (A) shall not apply to any payment for coverage under a group health plan of an em-

1	ployer of the health flexible spending ar-
2	rangement participant or the spouse of the
3	participant.
4	"(ii) Exceptions.—Clause (A) shall
5	not apply to any expense for coverage
6	under—
7	"(I) a group health plan during
8	any period of continuation coverage
9	required under any Federal law,
10	"(II) a qualified long-term care
11	insurance contract (as defined in sec-
12	tion 7702B(b)),
13	"(III) a Medicare supplemental
14	policy under section 1882 of the So-
15	cial Security Act, or
16	"(IV) an individual health insur-
17	ance policy.
18	"(6) Carryover amounts to be expended
19	AFTER HEALTH FLEXIBLE SPENDING ARRANGEMENT
20	CONTRIBUTION.—All Qualified Medical Care Ex-
21	penses defined in subsection (h)(5)(A) that are sub-
22	mitted for reimbursement must be reimbursed first
23	from amounts in the participant's health care flexi-
24	ble spending arrangement that do not constitute car-
25	ryover amounts described in subsection (h)(1), to the extent such amounts may be reimbursed from the portion of the health flexible spending arrangement that does not consist of carryover amounts pursuant to rules set forth in the regulations promulgated under section 125 relative to health flexible spending arrangements.

"(7) TREATMENT OF CARRYOVER AMOUNTS FOLLOWING TERMINATION OF EMPLOYMENT OR OTHER LOSS OF ELIGIBILITY.—Upon a termination of employment or other loss of eligibility under the health care flexible spending arrangement, the Employer must provide for one or more of the following methods of distribution of a Participant's accumulated carryover amount plus interest earned and allocated to such Participant pursuant to subsection (h)(3)(C):

"(A) The Participant's accumulated carryover amount, including any interest earned and allocated to such health care spending arrangement balance pursuant to (h)(3)(C), may be retained by the Employer to be used to reimburse Qualifying Medical Care Expenses of the former participant and the former employee's spouse or dependents incurred after the date of termination;

"(B) The carryover amount calculated as of the day of the termination of employment or other loss of eligibility may be transferred to the subsequent employer to be used by the former participant in a manner consistent with the rule of this subsection (h), provided the subsequent employer provides a similar arrangement and agrees in writing; or

"(C) The employer may distribute the carryover amount, including any interest earned and allocated to such account pursuant to subsection (h)(3)(C), to any appropriate vehicle as defined by the Department of Treasury in regulations or to the participant in cash. If carryover amounts are received in cash, the interest earned and allocated to such participant pursuant to subsection (h)(3)(C) shall be treated as ordinary income for purposes of Federal tax purposes.

The employer must offer at least one of the options set forth above; however, nothing in this subsection requires the employer to offer more than one option. If the employer offers more than one of the options listed above, the employee must choose the applicable option within 60 days of the date of termination

- of employment or loss of eligibility. Should no elec-1 2 tion be made, the funds will revert to the employer 3 consistent with Federal regulations. If the termination of employment or loss of eligibility is a result 4 5 of the participant's death, the surviving spouse, or dependents, if no surviving spouse, will receive the 6 7 participant's carry over funds in a manner consistent with (h)(7)(C).". 8
- 9 (b) Effective Date.—The amendments made by 10 this section shall apply to taxable years beginning after 11 December 31, 2001.
